DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-7 are, drawn to a method for preventing the incidence of diabetes mellitus in a subject with chronic heart failure comprising administering a therapeutically effective amount of an ACE inhibitor, classified in class 514, subclass 408.
- II. Claims 8-15 are, drawn to drawn to a method for preventing the incidence of diabetes mellitus in a subject with chronic heart failure that is being treated with a beta-blocker comprising administering a therapeutically effective amount of an ACE inhibitor, classified in class 514, subclass 423.
- III. Claims 16-22 are, drawn to drawn to a method for preventing the incident of diabetes mellitus in a subject with chronic heart failure comprising administering a therapeutically effective amount of an angiotensin II receptor antagonist, classified in class 514, subclass 406.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, calcium channel blockers, lipid lowering treatment can be used. (See enclosed article Kostis et al. Cardiovascular Rev. Rep. 24(7):366-374, 2003)

Inventions I and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, calcium channel blockers, lipid lowering treatment can be used. (See enclosed article Kostis et al. Cardiovascular Rev. Rep. 24(7):366-374, 2003)

Inventions II and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, calcium channel blockers, lipid lowering treatment can be used. (see enclosed article Kostis et al. Cardiovascular Rev. Rep. 24(7):366-374, 2003)

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
